HMRC's visibility into the market has improved dramatically. The agency now receives transaction data directly from major crypto exchanges and will gain automatic access to global exchange data from 2026 under the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD)'s Crypto-Assets Reporting Framework (CARF).

Crypto companies must be registered with the FCA under money laundering regulations and comply with the UK's financial promotions rules, which took effect in 2023, to advertise or provide services to residents.

The crackdown comes after retail investors lost an estimated $17 billion on digital-asset treasury trades, according to a recent 10X Research report.
