"We have hashing technologies, where we have the ability technologically to detect CSAM proactively," the spokesperson said. "That's something that's sort of an industry-wide standard, and we're able to block it from appearing in search."

The most significant breakthroughs in DeFi happened because anyone could plug into anyone else's contracts without asking permission. That's harder to do in a corporate-controlled L1 with guardrails. If you can offer true composability, you'll attract the builders they can't.

Outside of purely financial plays, it has made several moves that display a firm conviction in the crypto community. It submitted an amicus brief in support of Tornado Cash co-founder Roman Storm and hired respected blockchain sleuth ZachXBT as an adviser to fund research and help protect its VC companies.

The company's stock tokens mirror the prices of publicly traded US securities but don't represent direct ownership of the underlying shares. Instead, they are structured as blockchain-based derivatives regulated under MiFID II (Markets in Financial Instruments Directive II), according to the company.

The team promised that Ondo will do for securities what stablecoins have done for dollars, making the tokenized assets tradeable outside of typical market hours and available worldwide.
