President Donald Trump's embrace of crypto, paired with his return to the White House, has fueled enormous profits for his family—north of $1 billion to date, his son Eric Trump said.

“Another nail in the coffin of the original crypto spirit,” he wrote, noting that the “not your keys, not your coins” ethos that once defined the asset is giving way to a more traditional approach centered on compliance and financial optimization.

In April, Google joined Meta, OpenAI, and other generative AI developers in pledging to enforce guardrails that would keep their respective AI models from generating child sexual abuse material (CSAM).

Big Tech firms have also been supportive: Microsoft accepts BTC directly or through processors, whereas Newegg also supports ETH for purchases on-site, and Overstock welcomes XRP as well. AMC Theatres accepts Bitcoin and other digital assets for its products and services, from Xbox content to movie tickets.

The story follows founder Griff Green's perspective as the early instantiation of decentralized governance rises, raises $160 million and then, at once, falls victim to a devastating hack.
