"In the long term, partnerships between licensed prediction platforms and established sportsbooks are more likely than head-to-head competition, especially as the industry converges around transparency, liquidity efficiency, and on-chain data integrity," Ivan Muller, CMO at crypto-based gaming and sports betting platform, Dexsport.io, told Decrypt.

"Traditional sportsbooks focus on entertainment-driven, event-specific wagering with defined odds and consumer protections; meanwhile, prediction markets operate as decentralized forecasting tools where liquidity and information efficiency determine prices," he added. "If effectively regulated, both models could ultimately complement each other."

Coinbase says the high compliance costs pose "formidable barriers to entry for smaller financial service providers, including fintech startups," and are often passed on to customers through higher banking fees and denial of financial services, particularly affecting low-income customers.
