The clues lie in leverage and positioning. When funding rates in perpetual futures turn strongly positive or negative, it signals crowding on one side of the market. When open interest builds near key levels, it often sets the stage for squeezes in either direction.

Crypto trades 24/7, with sharp moves as likely on a Sunday night as on a Tuesday morning. In such a continuous market, trying to “pick your moment” is mostly guesswork, which is why many investors prefer a rule that removes the need for perfect timing.

BlackRock has launched its first Bitcoin exchange-traded product for UK retail investors, opening institutional-grade crypto access to Britain's retail market amid volatile trading conditions.
