Chart patterns are shapes formed by price movements that help traders anticipate future market trends. These patterns fall into two main categories: reversal patterns, which signal that a current trend may change direction, and continuation patterns, which suggest the trend will likely resume after a brief pause. They stem from market psychology, where emotions like fear, greed and uncertainty drive collective trading behavior and create recognizable shapes on charts.

Stripe declined comment to Decrypt. Greenoaks and Thrive did not immediately respond to Decrypt's requests for comment regarding the raise. Paradigm, the crypto venture firm that incubated Tempo alongside Stripe, also did not immediately reply to an inquiry.
