Google's newly released AI-powered search results are garnering lots of attention—for the wrong reasons. After the tech behemoth announced a host of new AI-powered tools last week as part of a new “Gemini Era,” its trademark web search results changed significantly, with natural language answers to questions displayed above websites. “In the past year, we’ve answered billions of queries as part of the search-generated experience,” Google CEO Sundar Pichai told the audience. “People are using it...”

Community backlash about potential conflicts of interest was significant enough that Feist and Drake both abandoned the advisor positions.

Strategy notched its third smallest Bitcoin purchase of the year, disclosing that it had spent $18.8 million on 168 Bitcoin last week, according to a Monday press release.

The acquisition is made in partnership with Brag House Holdings, House of Doge's publicly traded merger partner that will help the firm soon go public via a reverse merger.
