Weekly prediction market volume set a new high-water mark above $2 billion as Polymarket retakes its lead over competitor Kalshi, according to Dune Analytics data. Both Polymarket and Kalshi have experienced massive increases in user activity and trading volume over the last several months, as prediction markets as a whole gain broader mainstream awareness and adoption. Kalshi, as the first federally regulated prediction market platform in the U.S., saw a leap in user activity in August—not coin...

The bill increases the Currency Transaction Report (CTR) threshold to $30,000 from $10,000 and the Suspicious Activity Report (SAR) thresholds from $2,000 to $3,000 and $5,000 to $10,000, while requiring the Treasury Department to adjust these amounts every five years to account for inflation.

The stimulus measures include subsidies for electricity and gas charges, as well as regional grants to ease price pressure and encourage small to medium-sized businesses to raise wages.

The ETH monthly futures premium compared to spot markets slipped to 4%, below the 5% neutral threshold. Traders' sentiment had already been shaken by the flash crash on Oct. 10, and the last notable bullish phase was in early February. Ether traders appear increasingly doubtful about the strength of any lasting bullish momentum.

Cointelegraph reached out to Paradigm for comment, but did not hear back by the time of writing.
