Launched in early 2025, A7A5 has emerged as the world's largest non-US dollar stablecoin by market capitalization, despite facing multiple sanctions.

Companies in the cutthroat Bitcoin mining space are increasingly branching out to the world of AI and high-performance computing. Bitcoin mining is the industry that mints new coins for the crypto network and requires huge amounts of electricity to do so.

Chart patterns are shapes formed by price movements that help traders anticipate future market trends. These patterns fall into two main categories: reversal patterns, which signal that a current trend may change direction, and continuation patterns, which suggest the trend will likely resume after a brief pause. They stem from market psychology, where emotions like fear, greed and uncertainty drive collective trading behavior and create recognizable shapes on charts.
