Both platforms have capitalized on loosening federal oversight as Kalshi and Polymarket secured CFTC no-action letters this year, clearing them to operate without immediate federal enforcement risks.

“These protections have already proven to be successful in addressing other types of non-consensual imagery, and we've now built the same capabilities for fake explicit images as well,” Google said. “These efforts are designed to give people added peace of mind, especially if they're concerned about similar content about them popping up in the future.”

Crypto products stay resilient amid recent crash

The guild also warned producers that they “may not use synthetic performers without complying with our contractual obligations, which require notice and bargaining whenever a synthetic performer is going to be used.”

“Not liking this Ethereum weekly MACD cross to red after 22 weeks green,” said analyst CRYPTO Damus in a Tuesday post on X, adding that the last three times the bear cross occurred were followed by significant ETH price drops.
