This surge in activity also served as a real-world stress test for the Algorand blockchain. With tens of thousands of participants generating nearly 300,000 transactions, the network maintained its performance. Users experienced the platform's "low fees, instant transaction finality and zero transaction failures" firsthand.

"They conjured billions in paper wealth by issuing shares far above their real Bitcoin value — until the illusion vanished," they continued.

The character, developed by comedian and technologist Eline Van der Velden—who spun off Xicoia from her production company Particle6—was unveiled last week at the Zurich Summit during the Zurich Film Festival in Switzerland, and immediately drew online attention. Van der Velden said multiple talent agents are already interested in signing the artificial personality.

"I'm very wary of hyper-sensitive investments like crypto," he said, but added he wouldn't "close the door entirely on it."

BNB opened today at $1,090.97 and closed at $1,157.05, marking a solid 6.06% daily gain after hitting a new all-time high. The intraday high of $1,168.39 shows bulls are in complete control, with the token breaking through resistance levels like they're made of paper.

The "Alpha Arena," a competition that pits prominent large language models against each other in the live cryptocurrency market, saw OpenAI's GPT-5 and Google's Gemini 2.5 Pro with staggering losses of more than 28% during the same period.
