He believes this outlook bodes well for a sustained rally through the year's end, noting that "historically, October through December are the most active and bullish

months for Bitcoin.”

"The broader setup remains bullish, with a prolonged government shutdown likely to continue driving interest in hard assets and supporting demand for Bitcoin as an alternative store of value," Joe DiPasquale, CEO of crypto asset manager BitBull Capital, told Decrypt on Friday.

Google's newly released AI-powered search results are garnering lots of attention—for the wrong reasons. After the tech behemoth announced a host of new AI-powered tools last week as part of a new “Gemini Era,” its trademark web search results changed significantly, with natural language answers to questions displayed above websites. “In the past year, we've answered billions of queries as part of the search-generated experience,” Google CEO Sundar Pichai told the audience. “People are using it...
