But October—dubbed Uptober by traders—has started with a bang. Nine out of the past 10 years have been strong for the cryptocurrency.

When you've been around markets long enough, you start to see patterns. The tools we trade on and the rails we build on are never static. In crypto, one of the biggest shifts happening right now is at the base layer.

Over the past 12 years, September has been a down month for Bitcoin eight times. But the past three years, the crimson shifted to August, and September was green.
