A bull trap happens when the price pokes above resistance and then reverses, while a bear trap occurs when the price dips below support and quickly snaps back. These fake breakouts often result from forced liquidations and mean reversion, clearing out crowded positions.

“Currently, sentiment is in the extreme bearish zone, similar to stress points seen in 2024, and April 2025, the analyst said, adding:

The emergence of corporate L1s changes the liquidity map. If Stripe’s Tempo gains traction with merchants, you’ll see predictable, high-volume flows, which is great for low-risk, yield-capture strategies. The volatility and the asymmetric opportunities will still be in the permissionless frontier, however, where protocol changes, governance shifts, or market narratives can swing valuations overnight.

“The product will have the flexibility to connect to multiple exchanges, enabling DraftKings to offer one of the broadest suites of markets to its customers,” DraftKings said.

Many analysts believe that capital will rotate into Bitcoin, often referred to as digital gold, when the gold market cools.

His remarks come as the banking industry has spent months demanding Congress close loopholes in the GENIUS Act, the nation's first major stablecoin legislation signed into law in July.
