Miller attributes this to the Australian “larrikin spirit” at work: a cultural disposition toward irreverence and play, though one that some might read as proof of the market’s immaturity.

The character, developed by comedian and technologist Eline Van der Velden—who spun off Xicoia from her production company Particle6—was unveiled last week at the Zurich Summit during the Zurich Film Festival in Switzerland, and immediately drew online attention. Van der Velden said multiple talent agents are already interested in signing the artificial personality.
