retail investors are known for entering the market during periods of euphoria, typically after strong rallies or new all-time highs. Still, despite Bitcoin hitting multiple all-time highs in 2025, the general public's interest and retail activity continue to lag.

“Our investment in U.S. Triestina 1918 is about much more than football. It’s about connecting Dogecoin’s global community with one of Europe’s most storied clubs and proving that digital assets can drive real-world value, culture, and passion,” said House of Doge CEO Marco Margiotta in a statement.

Dalio said cryptocurrencies resemble hard currencies, partly due to their so-called tokenomics. Bitcoin's total supply, for example, is capped at 21 million, while the government can theoretically print an unlimited amount of money.
