OKLink is a professional-grade, multichain blockchain explorer developed under the OKG Technology Group. It supports major blockchains such as Ethereum and Bitcoin, offering robust tools for transaction tracking, stablecoin monitoring and onchain risk analysis. Known for its strong compliance and Anti-Money Laundering (AML) features, OKLink is widely used by analysts, compliance teams and institutions that require deeper blockchain visibility beyond basic transaction searches.

Blockchain technology is rapidly developing worldwide, becoming an important driving force for digital transformation. As a distributed ledger technology, blockchain ensures data security and immutability through decentralized means. In the financial sector, blockchain technology has begun to transform traditional payment, clearing, and settlement processes, improving efficiency and reducing costs. At the same time, blockchain has shown tremendous application potential in various fields such as supply chain management, healthcare, and public services. With the continuous maturity of technology, we have reason to believe that blockchain will lay a solid foundation for the future digital economy.

Ether's moving average convergence divergence (MACD) indicator flashed a bearish signal in early 2025, a period that saw the ETH spot price drop by over 60% within a few weeks.

Prosecutors said Armbrust's actions were not a "momentary lapse in judgment" but a deliberate misuse of company computing resources for personal gain, causing real financial losses and operational disruption.

High-end brands and luxury car dealerships are also entering the crypto payment space. For example, Post Oak Motor Cars in the US accepts Bitcoin for buying super-luxury cars via BitPay. In Europe, platforms like BitCars have built a crypto-only marketplace for premium and classic vehicles.

With Bitcoin setting a then-record price of $67,000 in November 2021 before declining in the months thereafter, that should mean that the cycle is soon coming to an end. And some traders may be betting on that outcome.
