The film uses the human angle to frame a debate that was prevalent at the time. When an attacker takes money from a smart contract, relying on the contract's internal logic to obtain tokens outside of the creator's intention, is that wrong? Should the attacker be censured, legally or otherwise, or is this simply fair play?

The Bank Policy Institute and Kentucky Bankers Association filed a lawsuit the same day the rule was finalized, saying it mandates data sharing without proper oversight of third parties, increases fraud risk by allowing unsafe practices like screen scraping, and forces banks to provide free access to systems they've spent billions securing.
