BitMine is the world's largest Ether treasury company with a stash of more than 3 million ETH, or 2.5% of the entire supply, worth $11.7 billion. It is already halfway toward its target of 5% and has only started accumulating the asset in early July, when ETH was hovering around the $2,500 level.

The crypto exchange sent a letter to the Treasury on Friday, responding to the agency's request for comment on innovative methods to detect illicit activity involving digital assets.

In the letter penned by chief legal officer Paul Grewal, dated Oct. 17 and shared to X on Monday, he argued money laundering schemes have become increasingly sophisticated through the use of advanced technologies, and law enforcement needs to follow suit to counter them.

According to CoinGecko, the token's 24-hour trading volume is $1.23 million, up 28.5% from the previous day. The coin has gained 193.7% in the past week and is currently priced at $0.0009073.

The continued aggressive accumulation of Ether occurs despite Lee's opinion that the digital asset treasury bubble may have burst.
