Did you know? Candlestick charts originated in 18th-century Japan, where they were first used to track rice trading, long before making their way into modern crypto markets.

Fundstrat's Tom Lee has echoed the sentiment that digital asset treasury hype may be coming to an end, but remains bullish on Ether, having purchased $1.5 billion worth since the market crash.

The FCA categorizes financial instruments in one of three risk buckets, starting with Readily Realizable Securities (RRS), including publicly traded companies, which the regulator says carry the least risk and feature no marketing restrictions.

In other words, the slight price bump is not being driven by aggressive buying. Instead, the move coincides with more passive buying.

The exchange responded to the criticisms by launching a $400 million relief program for eligible traders and institutions affected, as well as a $45 million BNB airdrop for memecoin traders who suffered losses during the crash.
