"Traditional sportsbooks focus on entertainment-driven, event-specific wagering with defined odds and consumer protections; meanwhile, prediction markets operate as decentralized forecasting tools where liquidity and information efficiency determine prices," he added. "If effectively regulated, both models could ultimately complement each other."

The ACI said the program builds on the success of other buyback initiatives. In April, Aave soared by 13% as the community approved a $4 million token buyback.

BNB opened today at $1,090.97 and closed at $1,157.05, marking a solid 6.06% daily gain after hitting a new all-time high. The intraday high of $1,168.39 shows bulls are in complete control, with the token breaking through resistance levels like they're made of paper.

These are the advocates now of a code-is-law ethos, those who think freedom from restraint will advantage them precisely because it is asymmetric. They disproportionately wish to pursue activities that society censures, so a less powerful social conscience disproportionately benefits them.
