Blue Origin and Lockheed Martin are expected to bid for the same contract, as SpaceX's main competitors.

But here's where things get interesting: BNB has been riding a powerful parabolic support line since mid-year. The chart shows a clear parabolic advance—the kind that can deliver explosive gains but also tends to end with equally explosive corrections. Looking at the projection, if this trajectory continues uninterrupted, BNB could be trading near $2,000 by December 31, potentially delivering another 67% gain from current levels over the next 89 days.

The operations processing transactions—known as miners—race to solve puzzles and are rewarded for doing so. In order to take part, they must use huge amounts of computing power.

“The conventional wisdom was that the SEC was only going to allow 2X leverage going forward, but these filings suggest that it may be willing to allow more volatile products to hit the market,” Roy wrote. “If they launch, these would be extremely risky funds designed for the most aggressive short-term traders.”
