"The $9 million transfer that Arkham and others have cited was simply a transfer to another wallet under his control. He did not send those funds to an exchange (yet)," he said. But he cautioned that it's possible that World Liberty has access to non-public information that explains the blacklisting.

"In practical terms, this means HIVE is scaling production of Bitcoin much like a growth business scales output of a core product," he wrote. "Each incremental exahash increases daily production and revenue potential, while our HPC division provides a complementary revenue stream that grows with demand for compute power. "

Bitcoin and gold have surged this year. The precious metal's price has increased 38% year-to-date, hitting an all-time high of $3,530 per ounce Wednesday, according to Trading Economics. Bitcoin's price has increased 20% to $112,000 over the same period, according to crypto data provider CoinGecko.

European financials, including Barclays and Deutsche Bank, pared earlier losses, while Asian lenders like Mizuho Financial and Sumitomo Mitsui also steadied after heavy selling.
