Decentralized exchange Hyperliquid introduced a new update that allows third parties to launch their own perpetual swap contracts on its platform.

These are the advocates now of a code-is-law ethos, those who think freedom from restraint will advantage them precisely because it is asymmetric. They disproportionately wish to pursue activities that society censures, so a less powerful social conscience disproportionately benefits them.

It argued that Aave's treasury had enough surplus cash to execute the buyback without compromising its operational expenses or reserves.

At the same time, Grewal wants Treasury to publish guidance recognizing and incentivizing decentralized IDs and zero-knowledge proofs as valid forms of customer verification and blockchain analytics clustering for Anti-Money Laundering compliance.

The top banking regulator in the U.S. dismissed fears that stablecoins could trigger a sudden deposit crisis, urging community banks to view the digital assets as tools for competing with Wall Street giants rather than existential threats.

“Another nail in the coffin of the original crypto spirit,” he wrote, noting that the “not your keys, not your coins” ethos that once defined the asset is giving way to a more traditional approach centered on compliance and financial optimization.
