Community split on future of corporate blockchains

The Bank Secrecy Act, passed in 1970, obliges banks, credit unions, and other financial institutions to help federal authorities detect and prevent financial crimes, including money laundering, terrorist financing, and related illicit activity.

The indicator has produced a bearish cross on the weekly chart, as shown in the figure below.

"India is unique in its challenges," Bharwani said, noting that while there is demand for digital assets and flourishing ecosystems being built, "a lack of clarity is causing founders to move away offshore."

Onchain data from the first week of Algorand's "Algoland" campaign shows 34,646 participants generated 287,418 transactions, serving as a stress test that displayed the network's performance.

"We recently contracted for additional power and real estate in College Park to deliver high-value compute to the greater Atlanta metro area and are evaluating giga-campus opportunities across the portfolio and pipeline that are well positioned to satisfy significant off-taker demand."
