Bitcoin infrastructure company Babylon Labs claimed to have developed a system that enables native Bitcoin to be used as collateral for borrowing assets on Ethereum.

The operations processing transactions—known as miners—race to solve puzzles and are rewarded for doing so. In order to take part, they must use huge amounts of computing power.

Bitcoin was recently trading for $110,368, up 1.6% over the past 24 hours, although the coin was off 3.6% over the past week, according to crypto markets data provider CoinGecko. The largest digital asset by market value last week dropped as low as $104,778.

Grayscale has played a central role in the institutionalization of crypto. Founded in 2013, it has grown into one of the world's largest digital asset investment platforms, managing over $35 billion in assets. It has now launched staking-enabled products that bring blockchain yield mechanics into Wall Street's traditional framework.

This conservative approach effectively took it out of the running for major gains, but also protected it from the significant downturns experienced by some of its rivals, positioning it as a more stable, if unprofitable, participant. Meanwhile, Claude Sonnet was comfortably in third place among the six contenders.

"Large banks have shown they'll restrict access for political reasons, targeting industries & individuals they disagree with, including gun manufacturers, digital assets, churches, & even @POTUS," Lummis tweeted while sharing the letter.
