During the same meeting, the company announced it had acquired 1,009 BTC for approximately $112.2 million, bringing its treasury to exactly 20,000 Bitcoin. At current prices, the BTC stockpile is worth roughly $2.2 billion.

In addition to filtering its search results, Google said it will demote sites that have received a "high volume of removals for fake explicit imagery."

Back in February, Kaspersky had warned that malware was being distributed through GitHub repositories widely used by coders. If downloaded, it could hijack the victim's keyboard and replace wallet addresses with ones controlled by the attackers.

BNB opened today at $1,090.97 and closed at $1,157.05, marking a solid 6.06% daily gain after hitting a new all-time high. The intraday high of $1,168.39 shows bulls are in complete control, with the token breaking through resistance levels like they're made of paper.

Their gains come after Bitcoin's price rose following a down week in which risk-on assets were buffeted by a re-escalation of U.S.-China trade tensions. On Monday, U.S. President Donald Trump said he would soon meet with China President Xi Jinping.

If you've ever been pulled over by a bad cop, you know exactly how this can go wrong, but the truth is, there is today no rigid system that is as effective as a flexible one. Maybe someday computers, building out large language models or other artificial intelligence, will be capable of equally effective discretion, but for now, code as law is simply worse.
