He called the rejection "a missed opportunity to explore how Indian listed companies can responsibly innovate" with Bitcoin in ways that add long-term shareholder value.

Shortly after the comment was made, however, another X user pressed Dorsey on his own financial commitment to the cause of protecting Bitcoin developers, questioning how much he had donated.

While some market observers believe that the traditional crypto four-year cycle is about to be broken, analysts told Decrypt this week that they believe some traders are still following the classic rulebook—and selling due to the expectation of falling prices ahead.

According to a post from journalist Eleanor Terrett on X, “the senators as a group said they were committed to getting a bill done.”
