But the offering, called Ondo Global Finance, is only available for non-U.S. investors, according to an announcement from the company.

He warned against loosening traditional corporate rules for crypto treasuries, noting they protect against "volatility arbitrage shells disguised as leveraged Bitcoin plays" that led to the recent retail losses.

As the price of Bitcoin soared Friday during early afternoon trading hours in the U.S., the rally stalled as traders appeared content to take profits just below the previous all-time high mark of $124,128.

“What that means is that when you remove a result from search under our policies, in addition, what we'll do is on any query that includes your name—or would be likely to surface that page from search—all explicit results will be filtered,” the spokesperson said. “So not all explicit results will be removed, but all explicit results will be filtered on those searches, which prevents them from appearing on searches where it would be likely to show up.”

Offering tokenized stocks has become a point of focus for many U.S.-based crypto companies. Crypto exchange Coinbase has said it wants to tokenize stocks since before its IPO and recently renewed the push. Trading platform Robinhood made waves in early July when its tokenized stock offerings included private companies—namely OpenAI and SpaceX.
