However—and this is crucial—ADX measures strength, not sustainability. A strong reading can persist right until the moment a trend exhausts and reverses, some random whale dumps the coin, or a FUD episode triggers a flash crash. It's like a speedometer showing you're going fast without telling you how much fuel remains.

Have Grok 4 condense the white paper, roadmap and tokenomics into digestible points to prioritize fundamentals that highlight structural risk.

Lately, however, that decision has moved from tactical to strategic. Beyond developers deciding between ecosystems, big companies are now building their blockchains from scratch. And when the companies doing it are Stripe, Coinbase or other giants with deep regulatory and distribution advantages, the L1 stops being a neutral playing field and starts looking like a moat.
