OpenAI has announced its intention to enter the search engine market with the announcement of SearchGPT, an AI-powered search engine that aims to make searching more natural for users. Although described as a "temporary prototype," the Thursday reveal is a clear shot across the bow of the singularly dominant

Google—as well as Microsoft Bing, which currently provides search results for OpenAI's ChatGPT.

Bitcoin, other than being a digital coin, is a payment network with operations processing transactions scattered worldwide.

What Grok 4 actually adds to coin research

"We're testing SearchGPT, a prototype of new search features designed to combine the strength of our AI models with information from the web to give you fast and timely answers with clear and relevant sources," OpenAI said in an official blog post.
