South Korea's Financial Intelligence Unit has approved Binance's majority stake acquisition of GOPAX, ending a regulatory impasse that had stifled its return to the Korean market for over two years.

Ethereum could eventually surpass Bitcoin's market share in a similar manner to how US equities overtook gold 54 years ago, when the US abandoned the gold standard, according to BitMine chair Tom Lee.

The acquisitions came in three separate purchases: 202,037 ETH after the weekend crash, 104,336 ETH on Thursday, and 72,898 ETH on Saturday, according to onchain data from Arkham Intelligence and 'BMNR Bullz', which tracks the firm's purchases, though it has yet to be officially confirmed by BitMine.

That may not seem like a significant supply shock in today's Bitcoin economy. On Wednesday, Bitcoin had a $2.24-trillion market capitalization, but back in early February 2018, that number stood at roughly $140 billion, when Kobayashi's sales represented about 0.26% of the asset's total value.

BNB opened today at $1,090.97 and closed at $1,157.05, marking a solid 6.06% daily gain after hitting a new all-time high. The intraday high of $1,168.39 shows bulls are in complete control, with the token breaking through resistance levels like they're made of paper.
