European financials, including Barclays and Deutsche Bank, pared earlier losses, while Asian lenders like Mizuho Financial and Sumitomo Mitsui also steadied after heavy selling.

“In years past, stablecoins were used mostly to settle speculative crypto trades; as of the last couple years, they have become the fastest, cheapest, and most global way to send a dollar,” the report said.

This cycle has also been complicated by the introduction of trade tariffs, which have already trimmed growth in the first half of 2025 and are expected to continue dragging on GDP growth through the first half of 2026.
