But here's where things get interesting: BNB has been riding a powerful parabolic support line since mid-year. The chart shows a clear parabolic advance—the kind that can deliver explosive gains but also tends to end with equally explosive corrections. Looking at the projection, if this trajectory continues uninterrupted, BNB could be trading near $2,000 by December 31, potentially delivering another 67% gain from current levels over the next 89 days.

The Defiance Investments' N-1A prospectus filed Friday with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission includes proposals for the 3X leveraged and inverse leveraged ETFs for crypto exchange giant Coinbase, Bitcoin treasury MicroStrategy, brokerage Robinhood, Ethereum treasury BitMine Immersion, and USDC stablecoin issuer Circle. It also aims to provide similar exposure to Grayscale's Bitcoin and Ethereum mini-trust ETFs, and Volatility Shares' Solana ETF.

Without real demand, any breakout attempt might lack the strength required to push ETH above key levels.

"Gold added over $300 billion to its market cap today," said crypto analyst Sykodelic on Thursday. "It's been adding an entire Bitcoin market cap in one week."

Big Tech firms have also been supportive: Microsoft accepts BTC directly or through processors, whereas Newegg also supports ETH for purchases on-site, and Overstock welcomes XRP as well. AMC Theatres accepts Bitcoin and other digital assets for its products and services, from Xbox content to movie tickets.

Regulatory developments are also helping to drive adoption. In the United States, the recently passed GENIUS Act establishes clearer oversight and reserve requirements for issuers, aiming to ensure transparency and consumer protection. In the United Kingdom, where legislation has progressed more slowly, regulators are working toward introducing a stablecoin framework by the end of next year.
