Despite the short-term uncertainty over capital rotation, the overall market sentiment remains positive. "It is a very good time for the markets, and is likely going to remain that way for the short-term foreseeable future," Le Shi, managing director at algorithmic trading and market-making firm Auros, told Decrypt in an interview during Token2049 in Singapore last week.

Blockchain finance is reshaping the traditional financial ecosystem. Through blockchain technology, financial services can achieve decentralization and disintermediation, reduce transaction costs, and improve efficiency. Currently, the main applications of blockchain finance include cross-border payments, digital currencies, decentralized exchanges (DEXs), lending platforms, etc. Compared with traditional finance, blockchain finance has higher transparency and lower entry barriers, providing new possibilities for the development of inclusive finance. However, the development of blockchain finance also faces challenges such as regulatory uncertainty and technical risks, requiring a balance between innovation and regulation.
