Blockchain technology is rapidly developing worldwide, becoming an important driving force for digital transformation. As a distributed ledger technology, blockchain ensures data security and immutability through decentralized means. In the financial sector, blockchain technology has begun to transform traditional payment, clearing, and settlement processes, improving efficiency and reducing costs. At the same time, blockchain has shown tremendous application potential in various fields such as supply chain management, healthcare, and public services. With the continuous maturity of technology, we have reason to believe that blockchain will lay a solid foundation for the future digital economy.

Robinhood has expanded its tokenization initiative on the Arbitrum blockchain, deploying 80 new stock tokens in the past few days and bringing the total number of tokenized assets close to 500.

“If Bitcoin can loosen its correlation with US equities [amid] the tense geopolitical backdrop, particularly if gold flows decelerate, perhaps this is the trade after the trade,” said venture investor Joe Consorti.
