Analyst Jelle said that Ether is just retesting a key breakout level around $4,000 before resuming its uptrend.

Part of this growth is being driven by improvements in underlying blockchain infrastructure, with some networks now processing over 3,400 transactions per second, a more than 100-fold increase in throughput over the past five years.

South Korea's Financial Intelligence Unit has approved Binance's majority stake acquisition of GOPAX, ending a regulatory impasse that had stifled its return to the Korean market for over two years.

Launched by Grayscale Investments, one of the largest digital asset managers, this staking-enabled exchange-traded product (ETP) signals a new phase in crypto's maturation and integration with traditional finance. It's more than a fund; it's a bridge providing traditional investors a regulated pathway to tap into the growth potential of crypto staking.

CEA, which announced its pivot to a BNB treasury company in July, is currently the largest BNB treasury company, and claims a goal of owning 1% of the total supply by the end of the year.

"Visually, the chart makes it clear that there is a major redistribution taking place: Bitcoin is moving from long-term holders into new addresses managed by ETFs," he told Decrypt. "As ETFs create demand, supply is being provided by old holders."
