Grayscale's introduction of staking-enabled funds marks a key milestone shaped by evolving oversight and growing market competition. The US Securities and Exchange Commission issued guidance for crypto ETPs in May 2025, clarifying that certain custodial staking activities may operate within existing securities laws when managed through regulated custodians and transparent structures. This development has eased earlier barriers that prevented ETFs from earning onchain rewards.

However, the rollout has drawn scrutiny. In July, the Bank of Lithuania, which regulates Robinhood in the EU, requested clarification on how the tokens are structured. Tenev said the firm welcomes the review.
