“Our investment in U.S. Triestina 1918 is about much more than football. It’s about connecting Dogecoin’s global community with one of Europe’s most storied clubs and proving that digital assets can drive real-world value, culture, and passion,” said House of Doge CEO Marco Margiotta in a statement.

Lubin's comments come shortly after the departure of two key Ethereum researchers, which caused renewed concerns over the potential influence of centralized funds over Ethereum’s development.

“What that means is that when you remove a result from search under our policies, in addition, what we'll do is on any query that includes your name—or would be likely to surface that page from search—all explicit results will be filtered,” the spokesperson said. “So not all explicit results will be removed, but all explicit results will be filtered on those searches, which prevents them from appearing on searches where it would be likely to show up.”

U.S. Triestina 1918 plays in Serie C, Italy's third-highest division of professional soccer. The club is currently in last place, and was recently assessed an administrative penalty that deducted 13 points from its standings.

Cross-referencing with fundamentals and development activity filters out short-term buzz that isn't backed by progress or transparency.
