However, market conditions remain choppy with digital asset investment products seeing $513 million in outflows last week following a Binance liquidity cascade on October 10 that triggered nearly $20 billion in liquidations, including roughly $16.7 billion in long positions, according to a CoinShares report.

That infrastructure is now being extended with their acquisition of 21Shares as a “natural next step” to strengthen market efficiency, Yarlagadda claimed, adding that the move is a “deliberate, long-term investment in building durable enterprise value across market cycles.”

This technological progress has fueled the continued adoption of stablecoins, fiat-pegged digital tokens that can move across the internet without relying on traditional payment rails. The report cited $9 trillion in stablecoin transactions over the past 12 months — an 87% increase from the previous year.
