The funds moved today by wallets tied to Prince Holding are separate from the $14 billion worth of BTC currently in the U.S. government's possession. They are other funds in the organization's possession, which Arkham suggested may have been moved to obfuscate connections to wallets now sanctioned by the United States.

A weakening U.S. dollar, rising governance risks, and yield curve steepening are creating a bullish narrative for Bitcoin, according to a Thursday investment note from Singapore-based QCP Capital.

The open banking framework, first proposed in 2022 under former U.S. President Joe Biden and finalized on October 22, 2024, allows consumers to securely share financial data with third-party apps through APIs (application programming interfaces).
