The Bank Policy Institute and Kentucky Bankers Association filed a lawsuit the same day the rule was finalized, saying it mandates data sharing without proper oversight of third parties, increases fraud risk by allowing unsafe practices like screen scraping, and forces banks to provide free access to systems they've spent billions securing.

House of Doge said it is also working with Robinhood and 21Shares to develop Dogecoin yield products and alternative investment vehicles.

Decentralization concerns are also significant. Institutional staking may enhance validator control, granting large funds outsized influence over governance and network security of the underlying blockchains. This would be against the core principles of decentralization.
