“What that means is that when you remove a result from search under our policies, in addition, what we'll do is on any query that includes your name—or would be likely to surface that page from search—all explicit results will be filtered,” the spokesperson said. “So not all explicit results will be removed, but all explicit results will be filtered on those searches, which prevents them from appearing on searches where it would be likely to show up.”

“If you messed with the monetary side of the rules-based global order, the US would send the military over and kick your head in. That is a big part of why Saddam was invaded, a big part of what Gaddafi was doing.”

Yarlagadda noted that crypto exchange-traded products are expected to “open new channels for investor participation through regulated, familiar structures,” citing his company’s work in building an “institutional backbone” for trading, derivatives, and credit.

A repeatable pre-screen process forces discipline: You filter out hype-only tokens, highlight projects with verifiable fundamentals and cut down the time wasted chasing every rumor.

Notably, SearchGPT appears to replace Microsoft Bing with its own technology. The videos shared by OpenAI don't show the typical banner indicating that search results are powered by Bing, as with the current version of ChatGPT. And while Google has been integrating AI into its services, SearchGPT's advanced capabilities clearly pose a significant threat.
