“This helps us understand friction points and opportunities, and keeps us close to the edge of what’s possible,” the announcement reads.

“What that means is that when you remove a result from search under our policies, in addition, what we’ll do is on any query that includes your name—or would be likely to surface that page from search—all explicit results will be filtered,” the spokesperson said. “So not all explicit results will be removed, but all explicit results will be filtered on those searches, which prevents them from appearing on searches where it would be likely to show up.”

It currently maintains multiple connections to the sporting world, highlighted by backers like the New York Yankees-owning Steinbrenner family and current and former NHL players including Tyler Seguin, Jason Arnett, and Ales Hemsky.

Meanwhile, ChatGPT and Gemini maintained their initial short positions after the bottom to incur losses, signaling that the two models are less reliable for cryptocurrency traders.

The "Alpha Arena," a competition that pits prominent large language models against each other in the live cryptocurrency market, saw OpenAI's GPT-5 and Google's Gemini 2.5 Pro with staggering losses of more than 28% during the same period.
