“These protections have already proven to be successful in addressing other types of non-consensual imagery, and we’ve now built the same capabilities for fake explicit images as well,” Google said. “These efforts are designed to give people added peace of mind, especially if they’re concerned about similar content about them popping up in the future.”

Offering tokenized stocks has become a point of focus for many U.S.-based crypto companies. Crypto exchange Coinbase has said it wants to tokenize stocks since before its IPO and recently renewed the push. Trading platform Robinhood made waves in early July when its tokenized stock offerings included private companies—namely OpenAI and SpaceX.
