While Bitcoin was already struggling after the collapse of the ICO bubble, its sharp drop on Feb. 6 closely coincided with Kobayashi's major sell-off. Kobayashi denied that his Mt. Gox liquidations deepened the decline, but his actions drew criticism from market observers.

The current setup looks particularly favorable for Bitcoin, the firm stated, but it had a more cautious approach for positioning in altcoins.

"Crypto is now an alternative currency that has its supply limited, so, all things being equal, if the supply of dollar money rises and/or the demand for it falls, that would likely make crypto an attractive alternative currency,” he said.

Tempo is still in the works and will be a stablecoin and payments-focused L1 with Stripe essentially being in control of the network. Its ethos marks a stark contrast to Ethereum's decentralized and open-source nature, given that it will be a corporate-controlled chain.

The announcement followed the close of a $27 million private investment in public equity (PIPE) backed by institutional DeFi and TradFi investors.

Chen Zhi is the founder and chairman of Prince Holding Group, a multinational business conglomerate based in Cambodia. The Department of Justice has alleged that Prince Holding is at the center of a global crypto scam operation involving forced labor and billions of dollars in victims' losses.
