In this scenario, BNB would trade sideways for weeks before attempting another leg higher. The conservative year-end target becomes $900-1000 rather than $2,000—still excellent 200% yearly returns.

Creditors will sell U.S. debt as they grow worried about its ability to function as a store of value, he said. That will likely put the Federal Reserve in a tough position, Dalio added, where it has to decide between rising interest rates and a debt default crisis or printing money to buy debt and “try to hold real interest rates down, which will lower the value of money.”
