His remarks come as the banking industry has spent months demanding Congress close loopholes in the GENIUS Act, the nation's first major stablecoin legislation signed into law in July.

In general, both retail and institutional investors continue to focus on buying and holding tokens for price gains rather than staking them. Operating validator nodes requires substantial capital, technical know-how and uninterrupted uptime. It also exposes participants to risks such as slashing penalties and custody challenges. Additionally, in many jurisdictions, the regulatory treatment of staking rewards remains unclear.
