Takaichi's "pro-stimulus" stance reignites hopes for QE pivot by Bank of Japan

"These protections have already proven to be successful in addressing other types of non-consensual imagery, and we've now built the same capabilities for fake explicit images as well," Google said. "These efforts are designed to give people added peace of mind, especially if they're concerned about similar content about them popping up in the future."

The Financial Conduct Authority estimates that seven million UK adults now hold crypto, up from around 10% (5 million) in 2022 or 4.4% (2.2 million) in 2021, showing the growing interest.

According to data from Nansen, the price of ETH was $3,857 at the time of publication, having surged by more than 9% in the previous seven days.

They won't prioritize privacy features that could raise regulatory eyebrows, and they can't move as fast in shipping novel DeFi primitives, as every new feature needs legal sign-off. They'll always have to balance decentralization with shareholder value.

"The short-term trend—that began with the big liquidation event earlier this month—is down and traders might want to test the technical support in the $100,000 and $3,800 levels for BTC and ETH several times before there's either a sustainable rebound or a sharper move lower," he said.
