One of the most recent notable plays includes the incubation of a competing layer-1 blockchain, Tempo, in partnership with fintech giant Stripe.

The experiment used Google's Willow Quantum processor and "quantum echoes," a technique that uses targeted waves to image an object in detail, according to Google.

"In line with WNBA Arena Security Standards, any fan who intentionally throws an object onto the court will be immediately ejected and face a minimum one-year ban in addition to being subject to arrest and prosecution by local authorities," it said in a statement.

This is because it may signal overcrowding in long positions, potentially leading to a reversal if retail traders start taking profits or getting liquidated.
